Flood Inspires Prospect Man To Build Fire Boat

Keenan Hanley Powers Unique Craft in Cincinnati Waters With Auto Motor and Pump

ONE OF a unit hastily designed and built for service in Cincinnati's recent disastrous flood was at its peak the Hanley Engineering Service of Prospect has developed a new type of fire boat

The flood and the attendant fire hazard resulting from inadequate fireman and equipment close enough to fire to fight them inspired Keenan Hanley head of the organization to build the boat and put it into service in Cincinnati with what it proved widely commended attention as the basic unit of the fleet

Newspaper photographs and accounts and other photographs and articles in fire fighting and insurance journals testify to the unique features of Hanley's boat Equally unusual are the circumstances that surrounded its development and construction

Hanley called he ... a ... dream

The boat was trucked to Cincinnati and put into service patrolling the inundated portions of the ... town district where valuable buildings and merchandise were in constant fire threat It was constantly subject to call over a one week period and was returned to Prospect only after flood waters receded from the business district

DOG GUARDS MYSTERY MURDER VICTIM

A man claiming to be a Canton, O., clergyman was held by Greensburg, Pa., police after the mutilated body of Mrs. Lillian Householder (above), 27 year-old Medina, O., entertainer, was discovered. The coroner was unable to decide whether the death was a murder or suicide. Officers were forced to shoot the victim's loyal dog in order to enter the lonely cabin where the body lay. FRIDAY [illegible] MARCH 26, 1937

They Must Mean It.

A few days ago the President of the United States took time to hope aloud there would be no new taxes [illegible] this session of congress. Earlier party leaders had made specific statements to the same effect.

In Ohio here has been the same sort of public pronouncement from [illegible] and the recollection has been most helpful [illegible] and recent. Lately he may have been taking new taxes right out in the open. The problem of raising new taxes is the responsibility of the general assembly. It is not my job. was what he said after the house of representatives killed down the Zahlotny bill designed to give counties the right to tax automobiles and liquor and beer permits. That sounded pretty plain.

Most interesting though is the chuckling retort of one of the assembly men who said: Are we going to keep faith with the people who sent us here on a promise of no new taxes.

They must mean it when they talk about it that way. The fact of the matter is they really do mean it. From President Roosevelt down to the last ward councilman. Politicians have been saying: No new taxes for years and meaning it. But it doesn't prevent new taxes from being slapped on layer upon layer as they have been from the beginning of government. The truth of the matter is the time to worry about new taxes is when legislators are denying most emphatically they will vote for them for then the way politicians ease their consciences in advance.

In the Spring

The business of forming Roosevelt for King [illegible] probably is due to have a certain vogue because this is the time of year when students will jump at almost anything to relieve monotony.

One or two things about it should be made plain to the boys and girls. In the first place it isn't funny. In the second place it is in fairly [illegible] taste. In the third place it isn't smart.

It may be taken for granted that it is thoughtless which is the most charitable way to look at it. But like other thoughtless stunts which kids thing up it tires their elders patience. If it goes too far someone on the rugged edge will snip it out and then there'll be an utter tempest in a teapot over misuse of the rights of assembly and free speech.

A String Of Ifs

The longest session of congress ever held lasted from Dec. 4 1917 to Nov. 21 1919 [illegible] 354 days. Second longest was from Dec. 2 1867 to Nov. 10 1868—343 day.

These unimportant details of American history may be recalled shortly by congressmen who don't like days in Washington during the summer and by their constituents who think until long sessions of congress disturb the economy.

If hearings on the judicial bill [illegible] mmie with the if the senate delays the bill three weeks. If [illegible] senate committee reports out the bill by June 15 if the senate debates it for only two weeks if the house accepts the senate amendments if they pass it without change if the president signs it before July 1 if the supreme court [illegible] if the court [illegible] if the court [illegible] if [illegible] if [illegible] if

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Franklin Wayne Crum, who died one year ago today, March 26, 1936.

He died before his infant soul
Had ever burned with wrong desire,
Had ever sprinted at Heaven's control
Or madly quenched its sacred fire

Lone are the paths and sad the bowers,
Whence thy sweet smile is gone;
But, O, a brighter home than ours,
In Heaven is thine own.

Ere sin could blight or sorrow fade,
Death came with friendly care,
The opening bud to Heaven conveyed,
And bade it blossom there.

Delaware Recalls 24th Anniversary Of Worst Flood

Special to The Star.

DELAWARE, O., March 26.—Yesterday marked the twenty-fourth anniversary of Delaware's worst flood. A stone taken from the wall of the old city hall and bearing a mark marking the high water line of the 1913 flood of the Olentangy river, laying inconspicuously on the grass at the rear of the new city hall, was one of the few remainders. Although the stone is broken and no longer is used to mark the high water line, the high mark has not been lost, according to City Engineer H. O. Core. When the stone was removed from the wall at the old city hall was demolished, Core made a notch in steel post in front of a South Sandusky street building. The mark shows the water reached 7.66 feet above the sidewalk at that point. Delaware, for its population, had the highest death rate in the 1913 flood. Twenty three persons were drowned when flood waters engulfed the city.

EVE'S ORCHARD

By MARGARET WIDDEMER

[illegible] Copyright, 1926, by Margaret Widdemer

SYNOPSIS: Eve Manneredfield goes back to her 200 year-old home and orchard in Connecticut after five years in New York. She plans to rent, marry, buy, sell—looking Denny and return to Manhattan. Uncle Henry moves in to help her run the place. Then come Peter, the penniless artist, his fiancée, wife Marylin and their sedate young son Judge. Eve's neighbor, calm, practical Louise Cleveland, who loves her, comes with his father on evenings. One day George tells her the renting agent said Eve had given up the idea of renting. Eve denies this excitedly.

Now on the ... week are ... large size from Biloxi. New ... of Cuban pineapples. Fresh ... celery from California and ... chokes were received also dealers ...

Asparagus is arriving in steadily increasing quantities and as a result prices are becoming generally more attractive, dealers reported. Green and lima beans and green peas continue somewhat scarce although prices are expected to come in more strongly.

For Easter dealers are offering a large variety of vegetables—beets, broccoli, cabbage, parsnips, cauliflower, spinach, turnips, radishes, cucumbers, lettuce, celery, Brussels sprouts and any number of fancy trims.

The fruit picture remains about the same as it has been the last few weeks dealers said. Strawberries from Florida continue slow, the apple market is gradually becoming exhausted, oranges are fairly reasonable, grapefruit continues at the most attractive prices in years, they said.

Fish of many varieties, in fillets, steaks or whole, are available at reasonable prices. Unusually large catches are being reported, dealers said, especially cod and haddock.

"Please... SAVE SOME FOR MY HUSBAND!"

"At a church supper my cake was disappearing so fast I finally had to ask people to please leave a piece for my husband. At these affairs he always looks for a piece of my cake. He says I'm a grand cook and it makes me so happy. But I give most of the credit to Pillsbury's Best Flour."

LIFTS BARRIER

Sir Boyd Merriman, (above) president of the British divorce court, cleared the last apparent barrier to an absolute divorce decree for Mrs. Wallis Simpson when he ordered in London that a charge of "collusion" be stricken from the record. The divorce would leave Mrs. Simpson free to marry the Duke of Windsor, formerly King Edward VIII. (Associated Press Photo)

In Ohio History

(From the J. H. Galbraith collection of Ohio history, written for the Associated Press)

OHIO ATTORNEYS GENERAL

Ohio has had to date, including the present incumbent 33 attorneys general and a majority of them had aspirations to be elected to the office of governor, but only one succeeded in gratifying that ambition.

He was a Columbus man George K. Nash who served as attorney general from 1868 to 1888 and resigned to accept appointment to the supreme court commission at the hand of Gov. Charles Foster. He was elected governor in 1891 and reelected in 1893.

The office of attorney general was created by the legislature in 1846. The governor appointed the first attorney general, Henry Stanberry, later attorney general for the United States in the cabinet of Andrew Johnson, who served until 1851.

MARION CO. GRANGES ADD 90 MEMBERS

Initiated in Four Meetings This Month; Final Session at LaRue.

Approximately 90 new members were initiated into Marion county granges this month at four county meetings attended by more than 1200 grange members, Deputy E. A. Williams announced today following the last of the meetings.

An audience of approximately 300 members attended the last of the meetings held Wednesday night at the LaRue High school. Bowling Green and Montgomery granges used farce skits in exemplifying the third and fourth degrees.

The meeting was in charge of Progressive grange officers headed by the master, Ethan Zachman. Music was furnished by the Kirkpatrick grange orchestra.

Marion county grangers who now have the fourth degree will be eligible for the fifth degree at a meeting of Marion County Pomona grange on Saturday, Sept. 4, at the Morral High school. The sixth or state degree will be conferred at the annual convention next December in Cincinnati.

PROGRAM PLANNED AT GRAND PRAIRIE

A missionary pageant, "The Conquering Cross," will be presented Sunday night at 8, at the Grand Prairie Baptist church, in observance of Easter. The service will open with a song by the congregation and the scripture service will be conducted by Mrs. Harry Paden, president of the Women's Missionary society.

The spirit of missions will be interpreted by Mrs. Charles Hart and the following will portray the children of heathen lands: Dorothy Foos, Hindu girl; George Rosal, Chinese boy; Wanda Myers, Mexican girl; Ray Weston, Jr., Arab boy; Dorothea French, Japanese girl; Bobby Vanass, American boy.

Rev. Charles Hart will portray "war," Richard Brooks, "wealth," Mrs. Edann Cook, "leading," Ray Weston, "power," Mrs. Charles Steinerer, "love." Music for the pageant will be furnished by Mrs. Ray Weston and Willian Vanass.

The Easter message will be delivered by the pastor Rev. Charles Hart.

COUNTY CLERK ON WALDO PROGRAM

County Clerk Carl F. Haberman will deliver an Easter message at a sunrise service for young people of Waldo on Sunday at 6:30 a. m., at the St. Joseph Evangelical and Reformed church.

Lutheran, Methodist and Evangelical and Reformed churches will sponsor the service. Young people from each of the churches will contribute to the program of music.

EASTER SUNDAY SERVICES MERGED

Members of the Zion and Bethlehem M. E. churches south of Marion will join with the Prospect Street M. E. church for Easter Sunday services. There will be no services at either of the Morral churches. Young people of the Bethlehem-Zion Epworth league will meet Tuesday night at 8 at the home of Dannie Almendinger.

But cheer up, nibble aged ladies—here's some good, sound advice for you: follow it and you'll help avoid the above ailments. Just drink plenty of water, get lots of fresh air, sunshine, 8 hrs. sleep and BE SURE and take the first thing every morning a third teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a glass of hot water.
